

MAKE A COMMITMENT

The St. Joseph's Seminary is committed to fostering ways of ministry that come from the long tradition of communities of men and women — lay, religious and clergy — who have embraced the charism of Saint Vincent de Paul and applied it to their ministry and lived experience.

DIRECTED RETREATS FOR SUMMER & WINTER OF 2008

These silent retreats are a way to

- Connect with God
- Connect with yourself
- Discern your present and future
- Learn new techniques and skills in prayer
- Rest

Vincentian Directed retreats involve one-on-one spiritual conversations and guided group discernment moments. The importance of reflection on experiences among the economically poor is explored.

Come away for a while to the quiet of the Princeton area beside Lake Carnegie. It is only a short trip from the New York or Philadelphia areas, and 45 minutes from the Newark airport. We can pick you up at the Princeton Junction train station.

Your residence, Slattery Hall, offers:

- Private rooms with full bathrooms
- Individually controlled heating and air conditioning in rooms
- Full handicap accessibility, including elevator
- Healthy, nutritious meals
- Daily Mass and opportunity for Reconciliation
- Extensive Vincentian library
- Spacious grounds for prayer and reflection
- Beautiful walking paths along a canal
- Labyrinth
- Internet access*
- Laundry facilities

Arrive after 3:00 p.m. and depart after lunch. The cost is $475. There is the option of a 5 day ($325) or 6-Day Directed Retreat ($390). You must begin the same day as all other retreatants. For more information and registration, please contact Judy Smith at 609-520-9626, x 4200 or by e-mail at judy-smith@sjseminary.org. Please register no later than three months prior to when the retreat begins. A 50% non-refundable deposit is due on that day. The balance is due 10 business days prior to retreat.

* St. Joseph's does not provide computers. You must bring your own.
